ACML

Asian Conference on Machine Learning

2019 Nagoya

November 17-19, 2019
WINC AICHI, Nagoya, Japan
http://www.acml-conf.org/2019/

Overview

ACML aims to provide a leading international forum for researchers in machine learning and related fields to share their new ideas, progresses and achievements. Submissions from regions other than the Asia-Pacific are also highly encouraged.

Call for papers

We are running two publication tracks: Authors may submit to either of the following tracks.

Conference Track: The proceedings will be published as a volume of Proceedings of Machine Learning Research (PMLR) series.

● Maximum of 16 pages (including references, appendices etc.) in PMLR style. A supplementary material may be submitted, but reviewers are not obliged to consider this.
● Submissions must be anonymized.

Journal Track: Accepted papers will appear in a special issue of the Springer journal Machine Learning.

● For an efficient reviewing process, we encourage submissions of papers up to 20 pages.
● Papers that are accepted to the journal track must be presented at the conference in order to be published.
● Journal track review is single-blind, i.e., the authors identity will be visible to reviewers.
